

Johanna Teske

Hubble Fellow, Carnegie DTM

I observe stars to find and characterize extra solar planets.

I want to understand the diversity of exoplanets, and what it implies for finding Earth-like planets.

I also try to work for a more equitable and inclusive environment in astronomy.

I also like running, watching baseball, and doing outreach.

Questions? Ask my bright friend there.

